西康採集記

欽俊德

(一) 引言

西康地僻一隅，向被視為蠻荒絕域之國。但其豐富的資源和特殊的物產，不論在國民經濟上或學術研究上都有它的相當價值。近數十年來這個高原的一切已引起了大家的注意，西川學者費里就涉到西康調查者亦復不少。

燕京大學在成都復校後，在地裡上有了接近邊區的方便，大可獲取一些稀罕的材料，以供學術上的

研究，機會頗爲難得。三十一年暑假中組織了生物調查團遠征西康，往返八十多天，行三千里，深入不毛之地，除採集些珍貴的標本外，並得以見識許多的風俗和習慣。雖然長途跋涉，艱困備嘗，時而遇到意外的危險，但一想起豐碩的收穫，便差堪自慰。寒假中無事，便把採集日記略加整理，並錄三個月中的經過情形如下：

(C11) 麥道士(C) 自六月二十
七日 至七月
廿七日 清晨
燕京西康生產物調
查團一行三人，帶着
工作必需的儀器、藥
品、和行李，跨上汽
車，離開了成都。我
們久住都市內，一到
田野好輕島出樊籠，
很覺得輕鬆。道旁碧
油油的禾苗在車下
後飛跑。初夏的陽光
曬了大地，是充滿着活

力，我們坐在車中覺得身上每個細胞都蘊蓄着工作的能力。不久到了新津，渡過了急湍，繼續前進，當天便在印呷休息。

次日中午由印呷出發，汽車穿過些很低的牌坊，我們在車上座位很高，惟恐頭顱撞在石塊上，心中時常有些緊張。在姚橋鎮附近有一個小石橋，道路急轉司機稍一不慎汽車幾乎翻下去。據人說不久以前曾有車輛在這裏肇禍。

從雅安過飛仙關，經天全至兩路口，前面便是二郎山。聽說二郎山顛汽車難行，不由得就捏把汗。晚上投宿在兩路口的客店中，天下着雨，耳聽着村野雨蛙陣陣的鳴唱，心裏很是扭扭捏捏的行程。次日黎明，日子的行程，車子經過楓子橋後，我們的輪軸高昇，使輪軸亦就陣陣緊張。高山山上長着極密的冷杉，山澗中清泉湍流，常成瀑布。公路環山如帶，面臨萬尺深

子」上。車抵圍牛坪汽油告罄，只得在那裏等候救濟車，天下着雨，真是飢寒迫。是日救濟車自旁發生故障，我們只在附近一個木庵中過夜。山雨整夜未停，於是我們覺得所帶的舖太單薄了。二山的公路盤繞頗為險峻。我們坐在汽車裏只怨路壞，那知道這條壞路即是許多勞苦同胞血汗的結晶。

蓉字

對公關的，作者，賢明的讀者與編輯個人，都是這塊園地上的園丁。以這樣多的工人去整理這樣小的一塊園地，我們敢相信它的前途一定是很樂觀，會開放出無數的野草鮮花，以灌溉人類的心靈，這也就是人類幸福的源泉了。不管一些人怎樣侮蔑文藝，說文藝作品使人麻木，消沉，只要我們看見無數饒有詩人，捧着他們心愛的作品，從中得出生活的真諦，換來無量的勇氣，在漫漫長途中堅韌地前進着，那些糊塗理論就該下台自決了。

創業的艱難，殆已為衆週知，即使小到三十字的一個副刊的誕生，也會遇着無數的障礙與挫折。我們不敢自誇勞績，只願提出此點，永遠嚴肅認真地工作，希望能真正發揮一點文藝的力量，願望各地文友，賢明的讀者不吝賜稿。因了篇幅的限制，來稿以短小精悍為原則，體裁不拘，但望內容能針對現實，道出這時代的聲音，不要無病呻吟，徒使奈何而已。

朋友們，這還是一千黃語，要發洩出來的時代，我們都蘊藏着一千黃語，要發洩出來的，那嘴，就不要再遲疑了，我們該忠實於自己的武器啊。

DR. GALT'S REPORTS ON EXPERIENCES AFTER YENCHING WAS CLOSED DOWN BY JAPANESE IN PEIPING

Dr. Howard S. Galt, chairman of the Education Department of Yenching University, and one of the repatriates from Weih sien, Shantung, has related his experiences from the time when the University was closed down in Peiping on December 8, 1941, to the date of his arrival in New York on December 1, 1943, at a welcome meeting given at Parkside Hotel Solarium in New York, on December 3, 1943.

Dr. Galt, a member of the Board of Trustees of the University, was on the repatriating "Gripsholm". Miss Margaret Galt, former Dean of Women's College, introduced the Yenching repatriates, sixteen of whom were present. Dr. Galt's report follows:

First Fifteen Months

For the first few months after the University was closed, said Dr. Galt, the Western staff were housed mainly in the South Compound of Yenching campus but in the latter part of July 1942, word came that they must all move into the city. Most of the American members of the staff settled down in that part of the American Embassy known as the San Kuan Miao, where they were very comfortable. Dr. Galt himself resided in the American Board Compound.

Internment in Weih sien

On March 4, 1943 all Western members of the Yenching staff except Dr. Stuart were interned in the Presbyterian Mission Compound at Weih sien, Shantung. They were there more than five months, leaving on September 15 to board the Teia Maru, and arriving in the United States on the Gripsholm on December 1. While in Weih sien the internees worked only for themselves, they did no work for the Japanese. In fact when the rains caused part of the wall of the camp to collapse, and the Japanese wanted the masonry to help in repairs, they refused on the ground that they not responsible for maintaining the walls that imprisoned them.

The Chinese Staff

Through the indefatigable efforts of Mr. Howard Payne, the Associate Comptroller, there came word in August 1942, that some University funds had been released by a Tientsin bank and would be available for paying one month's salary to the Chinese staff. This money, plus the salaries paid for Dec. 1941, were the only payments which it was possible to make to them.

The thirteen imprisoned Chinese members of the staff, after some trying experiences, were all released on parole. They had been sentenced to definite terms of imprisonment, the shortest being six months and the longest being two or three years, but the sentences were suspended and they were out under good behavior. They have entirely recovered from the ill-effects of imprisonment and are living in peace.

Grounds And Buildings

In October 1942 the North China Institute for Survey and Research began to occupy the Yenching campus. It was a composite organization which was making plans for the future development of North China under Japanese control. There are four departments of this Institute occupying the Administration Building. In the Science Building are the research departments of the South Manchurian Railway, the North China Development Company, and other important Japanese corporations and organizations.

The women's dormitories had been taken over entirely by the military and were used as a place where the soldiers could be sent for a little furlough. The Administration Building of the Womens' College was occupied by the military band and while the Western members of the staff were living in the South Compound, they were invited one day to a band concert and had a very interesting time.

The men's dormitories were not fully occupied, though some members of the Institute were housed there.

Furniture Shipped Off

The last time Dr. Galt was on the campus was at the end of October 1942, when he was called upon to make a more definite report of the Yenching finance, and had to consult the records. He found it necessary to send back to the city for Miss Cookingham to assist in compiling the report.

At that time the campus looked neglected and the buildings were not clean. On the front quadrangle, a half acre was covered with desks and other office furniture stacked up in very orderly fashion. Later Dr. Galt learned that these had been shipped off, either to Manchuria or Japan, in accordance with the claim of the Japanese that all movable property belonged to them. So far as is known all other movable property such as books and laboratory apparatus has been taken by the Japanese.

The financial records were found in a room with two or three tons of note-books and files, all piled up like hay.
